ABSTRACT

This bibliography contains over 1200 behavioral science journal articles dealing with alcoholism and alcohol abuse. The articles were published between 1970 and 1980 in 116 English language journals. This bibliography is intended for administrators, planners, researchers, counselors, educators and students desiring ready access to recent publications in the field of alcohol abuse. A 190-category index to the articles is provided. The content categories of the index reflect major areas of interest such as incidence, impact, program planning and evaluation, theories of alcoholism and alcoholism treatment, and psychological and demographic characteristics of alcoholics and alcohol abusers.
